

LA PLATA – BAYERN WEBINAR SERIES

Renewables for Sustainability

July, 14, 15 and 16, 2020 / 9:00 a.m. in Argentina

Via Microsoft Teams

Preliminary Program

The city of La Plata is part of the International Climate Initiative IKI for Sustainable Cities of the Federal Ministry for Environment of Germany. The webinar series aims to support the strategy development and action plan for La Plata in order to increase awareness and massive participation, impulse local projects, define working methodologies and create learning opportunities.

Webinar 1 Local challenges – July, 14

- 09:00 Welcome Words Argentinian Authority (Gustavo Kienzelmann/ MLP)
- 09:15 Urban Mobility Strategy La Plata (Juan F Martinez/MLP)
- 09:30 Presentation of the fruit and vegetable sector (Diego Principi/CALPO)
- 09:45 Presentation of academic sector (Laura Aon/UNLP)
- 10:00 Presentation of the private sector (Cristian Wallace UTN/Enersol)
- 10:15 Q&A

Webinar 2 Solutions and Best Practices – July, 15

- 09:00 Welcome Words Bavarian Representative (Pamela Valdivia)
- 09:15 Presentation of the Energy Transition in Germany and Bavarian strategy (StMWi/Ulrike Hoffmann)
- 09:30 Presentation of Technology and Innovation for Renewables (Ivonne Briceño/Prolignis)
- 09:45 Renewable Energy projects for sustainable agriculture (Werner Platzer/Fraunhofer ISE)
- 10:00 Presentation of Renewable Energy projects for sustainable cities (Albert Engelbrecht/IBC Solar)
- 10:15 Circular Economy projects (Stefan Karig/UmweltCluster & Roland Zentler R&H Umwelt)
- 10:30 Q&A

Webinar 3 Collaboration Projects – July, 16

- 09:00 Welcome Words Webinar (Gustavo Kienzelmann /Pamela Valdivia)
- 09:15 Action plan according to the Green Climate Cities methodology (Maria Julia Reyna/ICLEI Arg)
- 09:30 Public policy framework to reach established goals (Ministry of Energy)
- 09:45 Local energy system scenario (Paula Ramirez y Sandra Ursino/MLP)
- 10:00 Conclusion of all 3 Webinars
- 10:15 Final Words